10.45am for 11.00am start to 1.00pm (light refreshments provided)

Co-presented by the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (HREOC), WiSER - Women in Social & Economic Research at Curtin University of Technology and the Equal Opportunity Commission, Western Australia.

Have your say on building a fair and equal society for women and men in Australia.

The Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission (HREOC), in partnership with WiSER - Women in Social & Economic Research at Curtin University of Technology and the Equal Opportunity Commission, Western Australia invite you to join HREOC's new Sex Discrimination Commissioner and Commissioner responsible for Age Discrimination, Elizabeth Broderick, for a community consultation.

This consultation is part of Commissioner Broderick's national Listening Tour. The Listening Tour is an opportunity for men and women all over Australia to make their voices heard on the issues that matter to them.

Come along and have your say on the three themes of the tour:

- economic independence for women
- work and family balance across the life cycle, and
- freedom from discrimination, harassment and violence

Discussion of other issues will also be welcome. Information collected from this consultation will be used to inform the agenda for the Commissioner's 5 year term.

RSVP to Nadia Nelson by Friday 14 March 2008
phone: (08) 9266-7755 email: wiser@cbs.curtin.edu.au

Can't make it to the consultation? An interactive website has been constructed which allows online contributions. More information about how to contribute to the Listening Tour can be found at www.humanrights.gov.au/listeningtour, along with details of other events as the HREOC team make their way around the country.
