

Spectrum Migrant Resource Centre and the Mental Illness Fellowship of Victoria present

Mental Health and Mental Illness in the Arabic Community

Sunday 10th of August 2008
10:00am – 3:00pm (lunch provided)

Spectrum Migrant Resource Centre
187-198 High Street Thomastown, 3074

This free workshop aims to unite service providers and members of the Arabic community to explore issues of mental health and mental illness.

Topics include:

- Arabic conceptualisations of mental health and mental illness
- Barriers to service utilization
- Indigenous coping mechanisms in Arabic culture

This is a great opportunity to network with the Arabic community and increase understanding of mental health issues within the Arabic community.
