

12 October 2010

Dear Sir/Madam

Charles Sturt University recognises and values the importance of its regional communities, and is continually striving to enhance its regional engagement activities. One such activity is the Public Lecture Series, which currently encompasses eighteen centres from Bathurst to Albury, and Deniliquin to Braidwood.

The aim of the Public Lecture Series is twofold; namely, to inform the local community about research currently being undertaken at the University, and to strengthen the links between the University and the region it serves.

I would like to invite you to attend the next Bathurst Public Lecture, the details of which are as follows:

Public Lecture by Professor David Fryer
Unemployment from a Community Critical Psychology Standpoint:
Misery, Mental Ill-Health and Marienthal
Lecture Theatre, Teaching Facility Building (S15, Room 2.05),
Charles Sturt University, Bathurst
Wednesday 17 November 2010, 6.00pm

Professor Fryer has many years of experience in this very important area of research, and he would be pleased to answer your questions at the conclusion of the lecture.

I am pleased to announce that the Head of Bathurst Campus, Mr Col Sharp, will host the lecture and will be happy to welcome you and share some Charles Sturt University wines and cheeses with you afterwards. Please extend my invitation to any of your colleagues or friends who may wish to attend.

Yours sincerely

Mr Adrian Lindner
Head of Wagga Wagga Campus
