

setting the scene for wellbeing

DEPRESSION AND SUICIDE PREVENTION CONFERENCE

Presented by Brainpower under the auspices of Brain Injury Matters Inc for healthcare workers, carers, and anyone interested in depression remedies

25 FEBRUARY 2011, 9:30 AM TO 4:30 PM

120 PLACES ARE AVAILABLE

REGISTER ONLINE NOW

HTTPS://DS.EVENTARC.COM/1995

PHONE ASSISTED REGISTRATIONS: 0457 038 834

SMS FOR A RETURN CALL, OR EMAIL bim_statewide@yahoo.com.au

ORGANISATION	EMPLOYED INDIVIDUAL	CONCESSION CARD	SUPPORT CARER
Per individual representative	Full-time or part-time	Concession card or student card holder	A carer attending to assist someone
$100	$60	$10	$0
REGISTRATION IS ESSENTIAL	REGISTRATION IS ESSENTIAL	REGISTRATION IS ESSENTIAL	REGISTRATION IS ESSENTIAL

BrainPower is committed to promoting equal access to all its events and will not deny participation due to financial hardship. Phone or SMS, Lyn Macdonald: 0457 038 834

Kerry Dawson (Lifeline), Dr Edward Theologis (Consultant Psychiatrist, CBDATS), Marcus Andrews (Counsellor, Family Therapist, Life Supports), Headstart Program,
Sandi Noble and Janet Karagounis (Network Coordinators, Uniting Care Prahran Mission),
Carolyn McClenaghan (Brainlink Carer), Rebecca Hogeia (Masters Degree Researcher), MC Vanessa Marrama (Brainlink Services).

Sound Relaxation and Music Meditations with Peace Music.

'Setting the Scene for Wellbeing' Forum.

Light refreshments and lunch will be provided.

ROBERT WHITE HALL, THE SCOTS' CHURCH
FIRST FLOOR, 156 COLLINS STREET, MELBOURNE

Australian Government
Department of Health and Ageing

BrainLink
Reducing the impact of acquired brain disorders in our community.

brainpower

BIM
brain injury matters