

A switch in time

restoring respect in Australian politics

.....
Interested in defending democratic principles?

Keen to confront the sexism and misogyny in our political discourse?

Anxious to keep the focus on climate change and other important policy issues?

Want to challenge media group think?

Ready to reject social media vitriol and abuse as some kind of 'new normal'?

Hungry for some ideas as to what we can all do?
.....

In early September 2012 the Victorian Women's Trust published A Switch in Time addressing these important issues.

Join us for an evening of powerful and thoughtful presentations to create even further momentum, discussion, and enthusiasm for change.

Confirmed speakers include:

Tony Windsor
Federal Independent MP
Member for New England

Lynne Hautain
Communications and Media Specialist
Moderator

Mary Crooks AO
Executive Director
Victorian Women's Trust

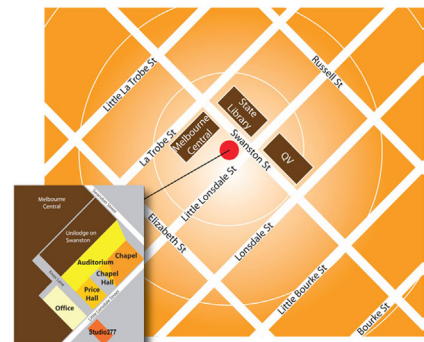

Professor David Karoly
Climate Scientist
University of Melbourne

When: 6:15pm - 8:00pm, 30th November 2012

Where: Melbourne City Conference Centre
333 Swanston Street, Melbourne.
(Near Corner of Little Lonsdale St)

Admission FREE, but your RSVP would help to manage numbers - women@vwt.org.au

Victorian

WOMEN'S TRUST

making a difference