

Sowing Seeds: The Militarisation of Youth and How to Counter It

CONTENTS

Introduction - Sergey Sandler7

Overt and Covert Recruitment: The Militarisation of Public and Private Space

Survey findings and quotes15

'Catch them young before the army loses them' - David Gee21

The militarisation of everyday lives in Venezuela - Rafael Uzcategui29

Publicity campaigns: The German Armed Forces's struggle for the hearts and minds of the population - Michael Schulze von Glaßer35

Invisible militarism in Israel - Ruti Kantor and Diana Dolev.....40

Monuments and memory in Former Yugoslavia - Boro Kitanoski 45

On-screen warfare - Michael Schulze von Glaßer.....49

The impact of war and the para-state in Colombia - Jorge Veléz 56

Shaping the Debate: Militarising Public Discourse and Education

Survey findings and quotes61

'Die for your country': Turning to bravery, loyalty and honour in order to legitimise war and recruit soldiers in Germany - Jonna Schürkes 67

Young people in Turkey besieged by militarism: Past and present - Serdar Değirmencioğlu.....71

Violence, military service, and the education system in Chile - Dan Contreras.....79

The military's influence in UK education - Emma Sangster. 86

Gender and Queer Perspectives

Survey findings and quotes95

Queer and gender critiques of military recruitment and militarisation - Andreas Speck97

One of the boys': The conscription of young women to the Israeli military - Sahar Vardi 104

Resistance

Quotes	109
The role of military veterans and current service members - Kelly Dougherty	112
Child Rights: Using international law and the UN - Ralf Willinger	119
Resisting the militarisation of education - Kai-Uwe Dosch, Sarah Roßa and Lena Sachs	123
Direct action against militarism ..	127
The need for a queer perspective - Cattiv Laska and Hanns Molander	132
Notes on the contributors	136
Resources	141
Other War Resisters' International publications	142
About War Resisters' International	143