Library Lovers

Declare your love for your local library during I Love My Library week from February 8-14, 2010.

For centuries February 14 has been known as Valentine's Day, a time beloved of romantics. Now a new era has begun with Library Lovers everywhere claiming the day for the objects of their special affection - Australia's libraries.

People are devoted to their library and not just on one day of the year. Millions of library lovers across Australia must be right!

Visit the Nedlands Library during I Love My Library week and feel loved.

Activities and events include:

- Be surprised by sweet tokens of affection.
- Take a chance – have a blind date with a book.
- Declare your love on the 'I love my library' graffiti board.
- Be a matchmaker and enter our competition on literary romances.
- Love your Bookmark during the weekly Storytime session.

CONVICTS AND BONNETS ROSES FROM THE HEART™

Meet conceptual artist Christina Henri

25,266 convict women were sent to eastern Australia between 1788 and 1853.

Christina Henri is from Hobart, Tasmania. Roses From the Heart™ presents cloth bonnets as symbols of the convict women's worth - their economic value to Australia's prosperity.

People throughout the world are invited to make a bonnet tribute to commemorate the value of a convict woman's life. Christina has so far received over 15,000 bonnets and found that she has three female convict ancestors. www.christinahenri.com.au

Do you have a female convict ancestor? Has she had a bonnet dedicated to her yet? Find out more on

When: Wednesday 10 February, 2010 @ 6.30pm
Where: Nedlands Library
60-64 Stirling Hwy

Bookings are essential. To reserve your place call Nedlands Library on 9273 3644.
