

BACK TO THE FUTURE!

Australian
Library and Information
Association

FORUM INFORMATION

Date: Friday 16 September 2011
Time: 3:30pm – 5:00pm and “Remixer” function 5:00pm - 6:00pm
Venue: Pan Pacific Perth (formerly Sheraton Perth Hotel)

Back to the Future: Which doorway will you choose?

No matter what you call them, libraries present both their clients and the information professional with opportunities, doorways to shape the future of our communities. Where the doorways take us will always in part be shaped by our time and the issues of the day, today that issue is digital.

In a world in which the community is spending more and more time in an online space, the challenge for libraries is to meet and engage them there. In an increasingly complex information landscape, where will the doorways lead us and what role will our physical library space play in our online future?

In this forum our industry insiders will be challenged to provide answers and strategies on what they perceive the future doorways for our libraries, information professionals and clients will be.

On behalf of the joint ALIA National Library and Information Technicians Conference and the ALIA New Librarians Symposium, you are invited to participate in the forum and the challenge to shape the doorways to our future.
