

Melbourne Library Service

Feeling isolated with your online studies?

Want to meet other library and information studies students to discuss current industry issues?

Close to graduating and wondering how to get that first job?

Concerned about where our industry is headed?

Let's talk...

Please join us for the first Let's talk online library and information student networking event.

Let's talk...

- Incidental learning. The benefits of networking for informal and formal learning.
- Career development. Emphasising transferable skills as a new graduate.
- Future of the industry. What do new technologies mean for job security?

Meet fellow students face to face and hear from online graduates now working in the industry. Enjoy finger food and wine.

When: Thursday 10 October, 6pm to 8pm

Where: Melbourne City Library, 253 Flinders Lane, Melbourne

RSVP: loretta.kelly@melbourne.vic.gov.au

This event is open to students studying towards any library and information qualification in an online or distance education mode through any Australian TAFE or University.
