

Melbourne Library Service

Feeling isolated with your online studies?

Want to meet other library and information studies students to discuss current industry issues?

Close to graduating and wondering how to get that first job? Concerned about where our industry is headed?

Let's talk...

Please join us at the beautiful new Library at The Dock for Let's talk, the networking event for online students of library and information studies.

Let's talk...

- Incidental learning. The benefits of networking for informal and formal learning.
- Career development. Emphasising transferable skills as a new graduate.
- Getting the most out of your studies as an external student

Meet fellow students face to face and hear from online graduates now working in the industry. Enjoy finger food and wine.

When: Wednesday 24 September, 6pm to 8pm

Where: Library at The Dock, 107 Victoria Harbour Promenade, Docklands. Optional tour of Library at The Dock at 5.15pm.

Book online

Enquiries: aimee.rhodes@melbourne.vic.gov.au, 03 9658 9705.

This event is open to students studying towards any library and information qualification in an online or distance education mode through any Australian TAFE or University.
