

CURTIS Speaker Event

Please join the CURTIS Club to hear from a guest speaker on career progression and possibilities

KIRSTY MCPHEE

Knowledge & Business Development Manager

Where: Room 101, Building 104 (behind Common Ground),
Curtin University, Kent St, Bentley WA

When: 10am, Saturday 3 September 2016

Light refreshments will be provided

Tickets via Eventbrite: <https://goo.gl/P9SmBP>

As the Knowledge & Business Development Manager for Tottle Partners, Kirsty is responsible for library and knowledge services. Kirsty also manages the in-house accredited professional development program for all legal and support staff as well as continuously improving internal processes across the firm. Kirsty has worked in libraries since 2006, starting in law libraries in 2007, and has published a number of articles and book chapters throughout this time.

Qualifications: Diploma in Library and Information Studies; BA in Librarianship and Corporate Information Management (Curtin), Masters in Business Leadership (Curtin Graduate School of Business); as well as units in law at Curtin, CGSB and ECU.

Professional appointments: Director of the Australian Law Librarians' Association (ALLA) Board; National ALLA President for 2013-14; and seven years sitting on the local division committee, including two years as president.

CUPSA
A DEPARTMENT OF CURTIN STUDENT GUILD

To learn more about CURTIS Club or to join, email curtisperth@gmail.com

Join the conversation at:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/CurtinInformationStudies/>